

What Do We Do First?

On behalf of the entire Allen Mortuary family, please accept our deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. A death fills the family with grief and can immediately disrupt your lives. In addition, there are literally dozens of details that must be considered in order to plan an appropriate funeral.

Our family at Allen Mortuary has prepared this kit for you which will provide helpful steps to guide you through the many arrangement details that you and your family may need to address.

Set an Appointment

The first phone call you should make is to Allen Mortuary to set up an appointment with one of our caring and compassionate funeral counselors. Our staff is available 7 days a week so we ask that you phone immediately to set your appointment.

Allen Mortuary

247 N. Broadway • Turlock • (209) 634-5829

My / our appointment at Allen Mortuary is:

Day: _____ Date: _____ Time: _____

Thinking through all of these details and coordinating the service are tasks that can become overwhelming in a time of loss. Your funeral counselor at Allen Mortuary is here to help you deal with all the aspects of your loved one's death and serves as an advisor, an administrator, a supporter, and a friend.

When you visit our funeral home, the funeral counselor will guide you through the entire arrangement process, explaining how you can create a memorable and personal celebration of your loved one's life. The arrangement process may include providing information for the official death certificate, scheduling the location, date, time of services or events, selecting a casket, urn or other items, preparing an obituary notice, scheduling transportation, and selecting casket bearers. Your funeral counselor will also have you sign necessary authorizations, or make arrangements to have them signed by the appropriate family members.

Whatever the tasks may be, our experienced team stands ready to serve in any way necessary.
